

Armada Area Schools

Now offers Kindergarten Choices

Choose the program that's right for you and your child...

Readiness – A program for young fives (children of school age that are five years old by December 1, 2009). Half-day morning program designed specifically for those students who still are not quite ready for a more challenging academic program and would benefit from that gift of an extra growth year.

Kindergarten – Children of school age (five years old by December 1, 2009 or for those that have come through the Armada Readiness program). Half-day morning or half-day afternoon program with a strong academic concentration on building early literacy skills.

KinderDay – Children of school age (five years old by December 1, 2009 or for those that have come through the Armada Readiness program). Full-day learning experience – Armada's outstanding half-day Kindergarten curriculum with one of our certified Kindergarten teachers PLUS additional half-day enhanced academically focused curriculum with a CDA certified Child Care Lead Staff.

Nominal Child Care cost of $800 per year prepaid (equivalent to $1.00 per hour)
Payment plans available

KinderPlus – Children of school age (five years old by December 1, 2009 or for those that have come through the Armada Readiness program). Full-day learning with a certified teacher (same certified Kindergarten teacher for both morning Kindergarten and afternoon enriched Child Care).

Enrichment portion of the day is fee-based at $1800.00 per school year prepaid (equivalent to $3.60 per hour)
Payment plans available
