Media Center 2:35-3:35 pm

Jan 19

All students be on the lookout for a collection jar at all lunches. The jar will be benefiting the disaster effort in Haiti. All proceeds go directly to the American Red Cross. So bring your spare change.

Athletic and extracurricular eligibility reports are being prepared today. Please be advised that ineligibility includes attending the Snowcoming dance on February 6.

Please remember that all hats and hoods are prohibited from the time you enter the building until 2:33. Hats and hoods are to be removed when you enter the building, not at your locker.

Tiger Pride Rewards will visit Mrs. Bates' class during 2nd hour. We are looking for a student with at least 3 "Outstanding" citizenship marks on the current progress report. Do you have what it takes?

Reminder for Student Senate members there is poster making after school on Friday. Meet in the media center. More people there, the less time it will take.

We need you! Get involved! We are looking for interested students to participate in the Student Senate Constitutional Revision Committee. Sign the interest sheet Mrs. Bates or Mrs. Barr have by January 29th.

Athletics

The freshmen girls basketball team (8-3, 3-2) lost to Cros-Lex last night 42-30. Miranda Townsend had 8 points, while Kelsey Thompson netted 7. Lauren Caruss and Autumn Killop had 9 rebounds each, while Morgan Weidner had 7 steals.
